Parking – You should be able to park anywhere on Sunday for free – the green circles are visitor lots, the orange circle is the parking deck, and the yellow circles are metered parking spots

Directions to Jones Natatorium at EMU:

It is easiest to approach EMU from US 23. Take exit 37-A, Washtenaw Ave, towards Ypsilanti. Take Washtenaw Avenue up to Oakwood Street (warning – there may not be a street sign at Oakwood – but this is the first entrance to Eastern Michigan University – if you pass by the distinctive water tower on your right – you have gone too far). The entrance to the parking deck is located off the fourth drive to your right off of Oakwood. You can park in the parking deck on Saturday and Sunday. On Friday you cannot park in the Parking deck, but you may find parking at any of the “guest” lots or parking meters highlighted on the map above.

The pool is located beside and a little below the Bowen Field House – down the hill if you walk up West Circle Dr. – It is not located on a main street on campus so you will have to walk a little bit no matter where you park.
